

Hoover Will Keep Abandons Plan for Clear of Exchanges Zeppelin Cruise With his Opponent Over Middle West

His Address to Be Confined to Issues—Party Leaders and Speakers Are Replying to Smith's Attacks—No Decision on Extra Session of Congress.

Washington, Oct. 26 (P).—Events of the Presidential campaign down to the present time have caused no change in Herbert Hoover's major political strategy of confining his speeches to a discussion of what he conceives to be the issues and to keep clear of exchanges with his Democratic opponent and others.

As has been the case in the past, party leaders and speakers are replying to the latest attack of Governor Alfred E. Smith. However, in his next address at St. Louis, on the night of November 2, Hoover will take up two subjects which Smith has emphasized—waterways development and farm relief.

The Republican standard bearer already has spoken on these, having declared for a coordinated system of inland waterways and for federal financial aid to a farm board to assist in meeting the problems of seasonal surpluses in the major farm crops. He also has stated that if elected he would invite farm leaders, such as former Governor Frank O. Lowden, into conference to help work out the details.

Extra Session Undecided
Whether he would call an extra session of Congress to tackle the problem has not yet been decided. It was stated in an official statement made public at the candidate's personal headquarters yesterday after Governor Adam McMullen, of Nebraska, had said Hoover had informed him he would call the new Congress into an extraordinary session for this purpose.

Additional details of the final western trip which take Hoover to his California home to vote are now being worked out. The nominee will make a number of addresses aside from the one at St. Louis during his four days' journey to Palo Alto.

The first of these will be at Cumberland, Maryland, within a few hours after the journey begins at 5 p. m. next Thursday. Hoover will speak there from a stand in the town square. His second talk will be at Louisville, Ky., on November 2, his train stopping in that city for an hour and ten minutes.

A procession will be formed at the station and Hoover and his party will drive to the Jefferson county courthouse at which place the nominee will deliver his talk. Arrangements for this rally were made by Senator Sackett of Kentucky.

Stops Planned on Trip West
Crossing the Ohio river, the nominee's train will pass through Indiana and Illinois during the afternoon of November 2, making stops at North Vernon, at 12:35 p. m., Vincennes at 3:10 p. m., and Washington, Ind., and East St. Louis, Ill., before arriving at St. Louis at 7:20 p. m.

The departure from St. Louis will be at 11 p. m. the same night with additional stops at St. Joseph, Mo., at 7 a. m. the next day and at Gibbon, Nebraska, at 3:30 p. m. The train is due to reach Cheyenne, Wyo., at 10:30 p. m. on November 3 and Ogden, Utah, at 12:30 p. m. the next day. There will be some few stops in between.

After an hour at Ogden, the special will proceed across the Great Salt Lake, the route being via Reno, Nevada, and Sacramento. There likely will be home-coming receptions at both the California state capital and Oakland, through which the party will pass enroute to Palo Alto, which will be reached at 1 p. m. November 5.

OTTINGER TO DELIVER 3 ADDRESSES IN QUEENS

New York, Oct. 26 (P).—With two days of campaigning in crowded halls in Westchester county behind him, Albert Ottinger, Republican gubernatorial candidate, rested today in preparation for three addresses in Queens county tonight.

Mr. Ottinger had no formal appearances until those in Ridgewood, Glendale and Richmond Hill tonight. It was his first opportunity, since coming to the metropolitan area after an up-state tour, to go over the situation fully with his New York city managers, and he expected to make the most of it during the day.

THREE SULLIVAN COUNTY BOARDING HOUSES BURN

Three summer boarding houses owned by Morris Resnick and situated on the Liberty road, about six miles from Monticello, burned to the ground last Sunday night, causing an estimated loss of $40,000. The buildings were erected about three years ago. It is said the fire started when the furnace of one place was opened so fuel could be thrown on the fire, which burst forth and ignited the low ceiling and nearby boxes.

WURTSBORO-PORT JERVIS ROAD IS PASSABLE

The road between Wurtsboro and Port Jervis, which is yet under construction, is being used by motorists at their own risk. It is said that there is no danger in driving over the thoroughfare if drivers proceed carefully and obey the commands of the workmen.

Ulster Engineers Form for Hoover

Local Organization Is Part of National Committee Whose Membership Includes Edison and Ford—Big Rally Next Thursday Night.

G. Wallace Codwise, city engineer of Kingston, has been selected as chairman of the Ulster county district of the New York Engineers' Hoover Committee, a subdivision of the Engineers' National Hoover Committee of which many of the prominent men of the county are members. Mr. Codwise in cooperation with the other members of the committee in this district is organizing all engineers and manufacturers in the county and they propose to have a big rally in connection with the Republican Club next Thursday evening at Pythian Hall, corner of Broadway and Thomas street.

At that time William McClellan, chairman of the executive committee of the New York Engineers' Hoover Committee will be the speaker. Mr. McClellan is a forceful speaker and this meeting will afford an opportunity for everyone to get the true facts about Herbert Hoover, the engineer. The meeting will be called at 8 o'clock.

The Engineers' National Hoover Committee is composed of many of the big engineers of the day including such men as General W. W. Atterbury, Lamont duPont, Thomas E. Edison, Henry Ford, Harry F. Guggenheim, John Hays Hammond and many others. In turn the engineers of New York state have organized a committee and this is subdivided into county organizations such as the Ulster county committee.

Among the members of the Ulster county executive committee of the New York Engineers' Hoover Committee are:

G. W. Codwise, chairman, 63 John street, Kingston, N. Y.
E. W. Hathaway, 77 Linderman avenue, Kingston, N. Y.
Henry D. Darrow, 152 Pearl street, Kingston, N. Y.
Everett Roosa, 139 Downs street, Kingston, N. Y.
Harry T. Sweeney, 119 Linderman avenue, Kingston, N. Y.
James M. Hutton, Chapel street, Kingston, N. Y.
Lorraine B. Wood, 82 Highland avenue, Kingston, N. Y.
Milton P. Townsend, 40 Liberty street, Kingston, N. Y.
P. Edwin Clark 114 Canal street, Ellenville, N. Y.
H. E. Van Winkle, Stone Ridge, N. Y.
W. F. Winchell, Washington avenue, Saugerties, N. Y.

Anxious to Start for Germany
The Zeppelin's commander also is anxious to start the return trip to Germany before the weather becomes more severe. One woman and five men have been selected to fill the vacant places on the passenger list for the return journey. Fourteen passengers on the flight to this country will make the return trip. When he left Germany, Dr. Eckener only expected to stay in the United States 14 days, which period of time expires Monday afternoon.

The six extra passengers, five of them Americans, who are making the return trip, are:

Mrs. Clara Adams of Tannersville, Pa., wife of George L. Adams, retired cannery magnate.
Richard J. Burke, of Big Lake, Cal., brother-in-law of Cornelius Vanderbilt. Mr. Burke is lying here from the Pacific coast to be in time for the take-off.

Donald M. Castro of Columbus, Ohio, was time flier.
Joseph J. Jessel, vice president of Ullman-Jessel Company, New York dress goods house.
Paul M. Marko, of the Marko Storage Battery Company, Brooklyn.
Allen Miller, British wartime flier and director of Almeida Accumulators, Ltd., of London.

Smith Prepares For New Attack

New York, Oct. 26 (P).—Governor Alfred E. Smith set aside today to confer with party chieftains and to collect new ammunition to be hurled orally at his Republican foes.

The Democratic nominee also arranged to give a last look at the speech he has prepared for delivery tomorrow night in Philadelphia, the home city of William S. Vare, first to announce that the Pennsylvania delegation was for Herbert Hoover at the Kansas City convention.

The governor has not disclosed the subject of this address, but it may be either on labor or foreign relations, as he has announced that both of these questions will be dealt with between now and election day.

The nominee's drive into Pennsylvania, normally one of the citadels of Republican strength, will be one of the few times in recent national campaigns that the Democrats have made a determined bid for the 38 electoral votes of the Keystone state.

The swing into Pennsylvania will start the nominee off on the second stage of his final presidential drive. The first lap of this concluding effort was finished late last night when he arrived here, tired but happy from responding to the welcomes of cheering crowds which greeted him but delayed his journey from Boston.

On his trip through Rhode Island and Connecticut, the nominee was the center of a yelling throng in every city, town and hamlet through which he passed, either on board his special train or in an automobile parade.

Start for Game in Newark.

Rhine, N. Y., Oct. 26 (P).—Eight Cornell students left here in a motor car today to attend the Cornell-Princeton game at Princeton tomorrow. The game, of the vintage of 1917, was purchased by the youths at auction.

New Record For Non-Stop Trip To Los Angeles

Yankee Doodle With Captain Collier at the Controls and Harry Tucker in Passenger Seat Makes Trip in 24 Hours and 51 Minutes.

Los Angeles, Oct. 26 (P).—A monopoly on transcontinental non-stop air records was held by Harry Tucker's trim little Lockheed-Vega monoplane Yankee Doodle today, after the plane's successful flight from New York which ended at the Mines Field here yesterday afternoon.

The Yankee Doodle, with Captain C. B. D. Collier, co-holder of the around-the-world travel record, at the controls and Tucker in the passenger seat, set a new east-to-west non-stop record of 24 hours, 51 minutes when it came to earth.

The previous record of 26 hours, 50 minutes was made in 1923 by Lieutenants John Mackeady and Oakley Kelley.

With Art Goebel, Pacific flier, at the controls and Tucker aboard the cigar-shaped craft dashed to an astonishing west-to-east record of 18 hours, 55 minutes a few weeks ago. The flight was from Los Angeles to New York, and the flier later announced a new and shorter route had been discovered, which, with a brisk wind at the ship's tail, accounted for the fast time.

The course of both flights lay over McKeesport, Pa., Columbus, Indianapolis, Terre Haute, Ind., Wichita, Albuquerque and through the San Bernardino mountain pass.

The west-east flight was the only successful non-stop hop ever made in that direction, while yesterday's flight was the second non-stop flight westward across the continent.

Battled Head Winds
The latest successful flight for the fleet little monoplane was a decisive victory over adverse wind, fog and rain about the Alleghenies and again over the Rocky Mountains that threatened to send it down short of gasoline before the goal was sighted.

The Yankee Doodle after successfully battling the head winds of the Alleghenies in September was forced down at Prescott, Arizona, when western winds wasted away the ship's gasoline supply. At the time the transcontinental non-stop derby of the national air races, held here.

"We left with 525 gallons of gas this time," Tucker said. "In flying over the Allegheny Mountains, near Bellefonte, Pa., we ran into the worst fog I ever have seen, and I have flown a lot. We couldn't see the wing tips. We had to circle around and try another pass through, and we lost an hour. We could have made it in 24 hours in spite of the headwinds if it hadn't been for that."

"When we started through San Bernardino Pass, I knew we were all right and it was as good as over," the pass is a cleft in the San Bernardino Mountains, the last range before the fliers slipped into Los Angeles.

Fuel For 90 Minutes More.
Collier estimated that he had enough fuel for 90 minutes more in the air when the ship landed. There were no jagged rents in the plane's fuselage this time, nor broken windows, as there had been when the ship landed on Mines Field in the derby flight. Tucker, in feeding extra fuel to the motor in the September dash, attempted to throw gasoline cans out of the ship with almost disastrous results.

When he climbed from the plane yesterday he exhibited a pair of tin shears and a stack of tin strips behind his cockpit seat. Instead of throwing cans out, he had cut them up.

The ship left Roosevelt Field at 4:16:35 p. m. eastern standard time Wednesday, and came to a stop here soon after 2 p. m. Pacific coast time yesterday. It was sighted at Wichita and Albuquerque.

Upstate Sections Report Snowfall

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 26 (P).—Reports from various sections of the state today indicated a general drop in temperature with snow in some sections.

Traces of snow were in the air here, but the flakes melted before reaching the ground. Cortland reported an inch of snow had fallen during the morning.

A killing frost during the night in the vicinity of Glens Falls was followed by a snow storm which lasted half an hour, but the snow melted within a short time. The thermometer registered 38 degrees this morning, the lowest temperature so far this fall.

Heavy falls were reported in several western sections of the state. Canandaigua reported one inch.

May Strike 40,000 Names From Rolls

New Jersey Democratic Leaders Fearful of Huge Loss of Votes Through Court Decision Sustaining Constitutionality of Recent Law.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 26 (P).—Forty thousand registrants in the election districts of Hudson and Essex counties, Democratic strongholds, today faced the prospect of having their names stricken from the voters' rolls on the ground that they were illegally registered.

Proposed action against them was announced after the decision of the New Jersey Supreme court yesterday upholding the constitutionality of the state law which gives to superintendents of elections the right to strike from the lists the names of citizens they believe to be illegally registered.

The law giving the superintendents such power was passed by the Republican legislature early this month, vetoed by the Democratic governor, Harry Moore, and re-passed over his veto.

The act was the outcome of the investigation of Hudson county conditions by the Case legislative committee, which is still under way. Hudson is the home of Frank Hague, vice chairman of the Democratic national committee and long a power in New Jersey politics. Mr. Hague is mayor of Jersey City.

Democratic leaders interpret the action as an effort to defeat Governor Smith. They say that the right by appeal to the courts given voters whose names are stricken from the lists means little as the time is so short before election that only a small part of the 40,000 will have an opportunity to be heard.

Asks Probe in Atlantic City
An investigation has been requested of the registration in Atlantic City, one of the strong Republican cities, where 76 per cent of the estimated population is registered.

Prosecutor Louis Repetto of Atlantic county has charged that children too young to go to school, persons long since dead, parrots, cats and dogs have been registered. He is moving to have more than 2,300 names of allegedly illegally registered voters stricken from the list.

Democratic leaders in Hudson county said that in starting their checkup of the list of barred voters they found 20 registrants from one house in Hoboken had been struck off the list whereas all twenty lived at the address given and were qualified to vote.

Figures compiled by The Associated Press show a 30 per cent increase in registration in the state since 1924. In Hudson county, however, there has been a decrease in registration in the state since 1924. Essex and Atlantic counties, respectively Democratic and Republican, show the largest increase, the former more than fifty per cent and the latter just under that percentage of increase.

Alarmed by the large increase in registration in Hudson and Essex counties United States Senator Walter E. Edge, Republican, announced he would ask the assistance of the Department of Justice to safeguard the polls on November 6.

TEAM OF HORSES RAN AWAY HERE THURSDAY

Residents of Kingston were treated to the rather unusual sight of a runaway team of horses hitched to an ash wagon about 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon when the team hitched to a wagon loaded with rubbish ran away while at the Summer street dump. The team ran out of Pine Grove avenue and down Broadway with the contents of the wagon spilling here and there along the road.

When near the Orpheum Theatre, Frank Brayton, who was riding on an automobile truck, heard the team coming and had the driver of the truck pull as close to the runaway as possible when Brayton suddenly leaped from the truck onto the runaway and managed to halt the horses. The team was owned by Morris Lipkin of St. Mary's street and was turned over to the owner.

CASH REGISTER AT GOVERNOR CLINTON HOTEL WAS ROBBED

Early Tuesday morning while the night clerk had been called from the office of the Governor Clinton Hotel a sneak thief jimmied open the cash register and abstracted about $75 in cash from the till and made his escape. When the theft was discovered it was reported to the police department who made an investigation. It was learned that shortly after the robbery a young man, thought to be the thief, had hired a taxi to take him to Newburgh. The Newburgh police were notified and later informed the local police that the young man had engaged another taxi in Newburgh to convey him to Peekskill where all trace of him was lost.

TONG WAR DECLARED ONLY MISUNDERSTANDING

New York, Oct. 26 (P).—The recent war between the On Leong and Hip Sing Tong in which several Chinese were killed and several wounded has been declared only a "misunderstanding" and a "peace" has been signed.

Announcement of the action was made by Dr. S. S. Young, Chinese consular general at New York, who said the leaders of the Tong met at his office and signed a document urging their fellow countrymen not to be swayed by alarming rumors and promising that the "peaceful" conduct of everyone's business will be continued as before.

Frost and Snow.

Buffalo, Oct. 26 (P).—A killing frost and snow flurries, first of the fall, visited Western New York this morning. The temperature was 29 degrees above zero.

Stickle Given First Radio In Downtown Sale

Two More Radios Will be Given Away, One Tonight and Another Saturday—Record Crowds Expected to Visit Downtown On Closing Day of Big Sale.

The first Atlantic coast radio given away free by the Downtown Business Men's Association in connection with the Third Annual Community Sale was awarded H. W. Stickle, Box 633, Kingston, Thursday night, when the opening day of the three days' sale was successfully closed. Two more radios are to be given away, one tonight and another Saturday, the closing day of the great bargain offering event.

Every adult who visits the downtown stores today and Saturday may have a free chance on a radio. All one has to do is ask a merchant for a coupon and it will be freely and cheerfully given. The coupon will entitle the holder to a free chance on an Atwater Kent, model 40, all-electric radio. Children will not be given coupons.

The awarding of the radios may be witnessed by the public as was the affair Thursday night. Mr. Stickle's name was drawn from a box, containing all those of persons having chances on the radio, by a little girl picked from the large gathering who assembled to see the awarding of the radio. The drawing of the lucky number took place in front of the Freeman building, where the other two Atwater Kents will be given away, one tonight at 9 o'clock and the last one Saturday night at the same time.

Saturday the Great Day

Saturday is expected to reach the height of success in the sale. Although many shoppers visited the downtown section Thursday and today, the business men are making ready for record crowds Saturday. The present chilly weather has reminded many of the winter supplies they will need, so folks are taking the advantage of purchasing necessities at a very low price.

Downtown merchants have slashed all prices for the Third Annual Community Sale, which means buying economical for all. Along with cutting prices on all articles the business houses have a number of articles marked very low for the benefit of customers.

The merchants wish to advise everyone who visits the downtown stores today and Saturday to get a chance on the radios to be given away, for the opportunity of getting one free comes seldom in a lifetime.

Stickle Receives His Radio.
Box 633, No. Fairview Ave., Kingston, N. Y.
October 26, 1928.
Downtown Business Men's Ass'n, Kingston, N. Y.
Gentlemen:

I wish to thank you very kindly for the Model 40 Electric Atwater Kent Radio complete with tubes and speaker, which was delivered to me today, and which is the first of three such radios to be given away by your association.

I want to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude for this beautiful radio. I always had the utmost confidence in the downtown merchants and when they said absolutely free I knew it would be absolutely free, for there was entirely no obligation on my part at all except to sign my name on one of the tickets and deposit it in the box for that purpose.

If you so wish, you may publish this letter of appreciation in the local newspapers, and in closing, I want to again thank you and wish the members of the Downtown Business Men's Association continued success.

Very respectfully,
H. W. STICKLE.

LAST OF FORSYTH ANTIQUES DELIVERED.

Charles Zimmerman, Jr., cabinet maker and upholsterer of Fort Even, has completed delivery of the last of the antiques sold at the recent auction sale of the Forsyth estate on Pearl street, this city, to dealers in antiques from New York city and elsewhere.

The most valuable of the Forsyth antiques was a highboy which was purchased by a well known New York city dealer for $4,425. The dealer who bought it refused to allow it to be crated and directed that it be held by Mr. Zimmerman until he was ready to receive it in New York.

Other notable antiques were repaired and re-finished by Mr. Zimmerman before delivery to their owners, while many other pieces which brought high prices at the auction were carefully packed for shipment to distant cities, in many cases the dealers having been commissioned by wealthy customers to make the purchases, although the customers attended the sale personally and directed which the dealers were to buy.

Benefit Sales.
Two sales for the benefit of church organizations will be held Saturday. The Gern Society of Clinton Avenue at the Rose & Gorman store Saturday at 2 p. m. The Women's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will hold a cake sale at on its store, Wall street, Saturday afternoon.

United States In High Tide Of Prosperity

And Prospects for Immediate Future Are Unusually Favorable, Declares Charles M. Schwab—Comments Efforts to Work Out Farmers' Problem—Predicts New Record for Steel Production.

New York, Oct. 26 (P).—Charles M. Schwab in an address today before the American Iron and Steel Institute, of which he is president, declared the United States "as a whole is still in the high tide of prosperity and prospects for the immediate future are unusually favorable."

"The unemployment which existed in some measure a few months ago has lessened," he said. Workers generally are now fully employed and at good wages. The relations between labor and management were never more harmonious, due to the wise attitude of cooperation and conciliation existing on both sides.

"Business sentiment is good. This is particularly reassuring in view of the fact that we are to elect a new president of the United States within two weeks. It indicates that there exists little apprehension as to the results of the election and their probable effect on business."

This prosperity however, has not been entirely uniform, he said, the farming industry having scarcely felt it at all and the steel industry only meagerly.

A maximum degree of prosperity cannot be attained unless it is shared by virtually all classes and industries, said Mr. Schwab, who asserted that is why the great manufacturing industries of the country should be concerned in the economic problems of the farmers.

"For that reason," he said, "I heartily commend the efforts that have been and are being made to work out the problem of the farmers. It is a subject that deserves the careful thought of every citizen."

In the steel industry, he said, there are three ways in which the stabilization of the industry on a prosperous basis can be legitimately maintained: by stimulating the demand for steel, by discouraging every lawful means the construction of additional capacity at times when the capacity is already over-expanded, and by the avoidance of uneconomic prices cutting.

The steel industry is now operating at about 90 per cent of its capacity, he said, and indications are that a sustained demand will insure a high rate of operation for the balance of the year. He declared it a certainty that 1928 will establish a new record in volume of production.

Sunday Movies Opposed Here

Mass Meetings Held Thursday Evening in Albany Avenue Baptist Church and Rondout Presbyterian Church When Question Was Discussed.

The Sunday movie question, which will be voted on at the November election, was opposed at mass meetings held Thursday evening in the Albany Avenue Baptist Church and at the Rondout Presbyterian Church which were addressed by speakers from the Lord's Day Alliance of New York State.

About three hundred attended the union meeting in the Albany Avenue Baptist Church which was addressed by the Rev. Dr. John Ferguson, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of New York State.

Spoke on Sunday observance in general and Sunday movies in particular. All of the pastors of the uptown Protestant churches were present at the meeting and also spoke briefly.

About one hundred attended the meeting held in the Rondout Presbyterian Church which was addressed by the Rev. Dr. N. S. Reeves, who spoke along similar lines. At this meeting all of the pastors of the downtown Protestant churches were also present and spoke briefly. At the meeting of the Presbyterian Church several of the speakers criticized Mayor Dempsey for his failure to veto the measure when it was adopted by the common council.

Holiday Turkeys May Come High This Year

The annual "turkey trot" of Texas birds to holiday tables will soon begin, but the parade is likely to be less impressive than usual because of diminished numbers, and growers forecast high prices as a result. Above is seen a part of the thousands of turkeys raised each year near Brady, Texas, participating in a former "trot". "King Turkey" draws the chariot of prosperity in one of the floats (lower right). The chieftain of the White Holland tribe of turkeys (lower left) is one of the prized birds used for breeding purposes.

Kingston Hi-Y Discussed Council

Wednesday night the regular Hi-Y meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. The subject under discussion was the Hi-Y council of the combined clubs in the three counties, Orange, Dutchess, and Ulster. Chester R. Hall, President Shaler and Secretary Lasher of the local club attended a temporary council held at Newburgh on Tuesday night. The council was being formed to bring the schools under a better understanding. The council will hold banquets to which Hi-Y members of all the schools will go and become acquainted with the pupils of the several schools. Since all the schools have different methods of conducting Hi-Y, all may learn from others better ways of conducting the meetings. The officers of the club were chosen as delegates to the council.

Mr. Hall told those present of a trip to New York to see the New York University-Alfred football game on November 10, and asked those who wanted to go to see him.

Robert Strickland, chairman of the entertainment committee, made a report on the Hi-Y masquerade dance to be held at the Y's Men's lodge at Glencliff on October 30. He said everything was in readiness and "Bob" Steuding's orchestra would furnish the music. President Shaler made the announcement that although next Wednesday was Halloween, a meeting would be held at 6:15 p. m. Clarence Rowland will be the speaker of the evening.

Railroads Assent To Express Plan

New York, Oct. 24 (AP).—Eighty per cent of the interested railroads have assented to the plan for their taking over the express business, W. B. Storey, president of the Association of the American Railway Express Company, said today. The plan, announced Thursday, calls for 75 per cent of the plan to become operative.

Mr. Storey, who is chairman of the association of the railway executives' committee on uniform express contracts, said the committee had notified the railroad agents to proceed with their negotiations with the heads of the American Railway Express Company, and a meeting is to be held this week to decide whether it will be to the railroad's advantage to buy the physical assets of the express company at cost less depreciation or to purchase the entire outstanding stock of the company.

Wall Street expects the railroads will execute the plan according to their contracts to purchase the physical assets at the book value less depreciation, which was $27,000,000 as of December 31, 1927. In such a case cash and securities of the express company would be distributed to its stockholders.

Mr. Storey, W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad; Patrick E. Crowley, president of the New York Central; and Carl H. Gray of the Union Pacific will act as agents for the railroads.

ROSENDALE.

Rosendale, Oct. 26.—The Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Church will meet at the home of Mrs. John Bauer on James street on Wednesday afternoon, October 31, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Caroline G. Anderson has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Grace Zuzalla, at Watervliet the past week. The Misses Huttles are working in the factory which was recently started at Tilson.

Mrs. Charles J. Heath, who was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Olney, returned to her home in Chicago on Saturday.

The Guild of All Saints Church met at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hasbrouck on Thursday afternoon last.

Mrs. Harry Ten Hagen and Mrs. Charles Heath spent Friday with Mrs. J. A. Lay at Kingston.

Miss Mame Smith is spending some time with relatives in Kingston.

Mrs. Jennie King of New Jersey has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. Florence Simmons, at the Baptist parsonage the past week.

John Olney was fortunate in shooting a fine pheasant on Thursday.

Francis Connell of James street was bitten on the arm by the dog of Mr. Nauman on Wednesday morning while on his way to school.

The Missionary Society of the Reformed Church met at the home of Mrs. Bedford at Bloomington on Wednesday afternoon. Owing to some of the members being away there was not a very large attendance. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Ten Hagen.

The people of this village are glad to know that the long abandoned cement works in this town will be in operation again before many months. Thanks to Andrew J. Snyder for his untiring efforts in having this transaction materialize, and once again see our village producing its famous product.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wernit of New York city were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wesp at Wesp Cottage.

Mrs. Charles Ten Hagen returned from New York on Friday where she had been for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gerald of New Jersey spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Rutsen Ten Hagen, Mrs. Gerard's parents.

The many friends of Gerard Buckley will be glad to hear he is recovering from his recent serious accident of several weeks ago. He is at the Benedictine Hospital, Kingston.

Mrs. A. B. Ding of Berlin was a guest of Mr. Ralph LeFevre on Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Turner of Walden motored to this village on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice DeWitt.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Buckley of New York have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Buckley of James street, Mr. Buckley's parents.

Members of the Baptist Church in this village attended the Hudson River Baptist Association meetings at Poughkeepsie this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olney visited friends at Butterville on Sunday afternoon.

THE VLY. The Vly. Oct. 25.—Walter Moeller and sister, Eleanor, spent Thursday in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wasson and daughter of Poughkeepsie spent Sunday last with Mrs. Wasson's sister, Mrs. Moses Van Vemack.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wager were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Krom recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Olsen, Jr. were the guests at the Palen farm and of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Olsen over Columbus Day.

Mrs. Elmer Christiansa was a caller at the home of Mrs. McCormick one day last week.

Mrs. Thomas Olsen and daughter, Mrs. Arnold Fedde, spent Wednesday in Kingston.

George Wurster, Jr., of Jersey City spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Palen.

Mrs. Elmer Christiansa called on Mrs. Leish on Tuesday.

Miss Edith Patterson and Miss Eleanor Moeller were guests of Mrs. Arnold Fedde on Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Leish was the guest at the home of Mrs. McCormick on Sunday last.

Church service was well attended last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moeller of New Jersey were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moeller, over the week end.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be held Thursday afternoon, November 1.

WHERE CHINA IS STILL IN LEAD

Every Year Brings to Us
Some Marvel From Its Ancient Civilization.

Washington.—Whistles for pigeons is an ancient Chinese device which the United States army plans to try out.

In fastening whistles to the tail feathers of messenger pigeons the army hopes to frighten off hawks. Bamboo pigeon pipes have long been used in China to protect the birds.

Western civilization never ceases to learn from China.

"Every year brings to the United States some marvel from the treasure chest of China's ancient civilization," says a bulletin from the Washington (D. C.) headquarters of the National Geographic society.

"This year postal, or Chinese cabbage, has invaded even the chain grocery stores of some American cities and the big, red, Chinese persimmons decorate the vegetable stalls. This year new salves and ointments bloom on drug-store shelves as palliatives for hay fever sufferers and their essential element is ma huang, a drug used for centuries in the Far East. Ma huang or 'medicinal grass' grows wild in north China and the exports of it to the United States have sprung from nothing to 622,000 pounds in 1927.

"China has also helped American cotton growers to determine fertile from infertile seeds, according to a recent recommendation of the Department of Agriculture, which approves the oriental practice of placing cotton seeds in water and planting only those which sink.

"Mah-jongg, the Chinese game, has come and almost gone again, but tung oil, the preservative which has protected Chinese junk for ages and makes possible the tremendous Chinese house-boat population, now comes into this country at the rate of 100,000,000 pounds annually, valued at approximately $10,000,000. So important has tung oil become to American industry that the Department of Commerce has arranged for a monthly cable report of prices at Hankow.

Some Probable Chinese Firsts.

"Nearly everyone knows the more famous discoveries like gunpowder and printing. Other Chinese 'firsts' sometimes escape attention. Among them are India ink (really China ink), dominoes, silk, tea, playing cards, dice, encyclopedias, chess, dictionaries, movable type, porcelain, rag, wood and rice paper, stone engravings, certain lacquers, artificial pearls, gold fish, stitched books, Chinese lanterns, jade mines, Pekinese dogs, chow dogs, water-tight compartments for ships, peaches, firecrackers, peonies, and seismographs, not to mention soy sauce, and bean sprouts, and probably spinach, onions, cabbage, green peas, cucumbers, cauliflower and eggplant. In some cases the ultimate ancestry of these products and devices is obscure, though Europe first learned of them from China.

"The writings of Shen Kua mention the magnetic needle in the Eleventh century A. D., long before western civilization discovered it to be the key to navigation. The same author gives the earliest description of printing with movable type. There is also good evidence that one Tsai Lun first made rag paper in 105 A. D.

"The Peking Gazette, which ceased publication in 1900, had been issued daily since about 714 A. D., and thus was one of the oldest of newspapers, although in the style of a government bulletin. Some Chinese claim that their nation had the first well-developed postal system and the first air mail. In support of the latter tradition the Chinese postal flag bears the design of a flying goose, recalling that trained geese once were used to carry messages. The Chinese were also the first to use paper money. Printing of paper money in 807 led directly to the organization of the first bank at Ichow about 850.

"Civil service tests for the selection of government officials began in 140 B. C. Men's leagues, and even women's colleges, date back many centuries. These facts and many others on China's civilization are obtainable because of ancient books preserved in ancient libraries.

Silk Goes Back to Dim Past.

"Yet much of Chinese progress belongs to a past so dim that fixing the discovery of silk to 2700 B. C., and the invention of the plow to 2800 B. C., and crediting the first to Princeess Si Ling-chee and the second to a man named Shenung, must be rated as mythical as the deeds of the Knights of the Round Table. Even the earliest contacts with Europe are little known. So many Chinese discoveries appeared in Europe immediately after Genghis Khan struck farthest west, that it seems probable he spread information as well as terror. Trade with China was so uncertain that Chinese figured silks were called damask for Damascus, a halfway shipping city; Chinese ink was known—and still is known—as India ink.

"With nothing more than bamboo pipes to work with the Chinese drilled salt wells 2,000 feet deep years before occidentals attained such depths. With our scientific background the celestial has been for ages a successful fish breeder, and he learned, no one knows how or when, to feed his soil the proper food and to rotate his crops with legumes which add nitrogen to the soil."

ARTIFICIAL FEVER PRODUCED BY RADIO

Albany, N. Y.—Oct. 26 (AP).—Artificial fever, caused by radio, without any accompanying illness, is under study here.

The phenomenon was discovered when a bystander near a short wave radio antenna noted a 2.2 degree rise in his mouth temperature in 15 minutes. The radio was discharging from a six foot rod to ground with sixty million alternations per second of 15,000 volts.

Helen R. Hosmer of the department of physiology of Albany Medical College reports in Science on the fever experiments, saying: "Here is a method of producing at will any degree of fever without introduction of bacteria, toxins, foreign proteins or other adventitious material or condition into the animal body."

"The increase of temperature is produced directly within the animal structure, as in ordinary fever. It occurs promptly while the animal is in a normal condition in other respects. Its uncomplicated effects are thus thrown open to direct study. We may hope very soon to solve the long-vexed question of whether fever is a functional response or merely a condition secondary to infection or trauma."

Tells Dyspeptics
What To Eat

Strict diets are often unnecessary in stomach trouble. While some foods do produce excessive acidity and many stomachs do generate "too much acid" causing gas, sourness, bloating and after-dinner pains, the trouble may be safely and quickly corrected by the use of a good alkaline. Bismarck Magnesia powder or tablets—ideal for this purpose. Just a little after meals neutralizes all the excess acid, prevents souring, breaks up gas and ends indigestion. Favorite foods no longer upset stomach and digestion is easy and painless. It will do all this for you or money back. Reliable druggists everywhere sell Bismarck Magnesia with this guarantee.

MOSQUITO HIDES OUT ON HUNTERS 23 YEARS
Washington, Oct. 26 (AP)—The story of a species of Anopheles mosquito that eluded expert mosquito hunters in Panama through a quarter century of careful observation is told in a paper by Dr. D. P. Curry, assistant chief health officer of the American Society of Tropical Medicine.
New to science, it has been given the name Anopheles (Chagastasi) batista, in honor of its discoverer. Dr. Curry, sanitary inspector at Panama, although a number have since been captured and studied, Dr. Curry is inclined to believe it has little or no importance as a malaria carrier.
"So thoroughly have the mosquitoes of Panama been studied by our own workers and others," he says, "that only seldom do we find a new species added to the about 140 species now listed. Especially in the last few years have the Anopheles been watched closely, as each sanitary inspector has a compound microscope of adequate power, and practically every specimen that is taken passes under its lens."
Mr. Curry found his mosquito as a well developed larva in a "pothole" in the rocky bed of one of the small streams from the hills above the Agua Clara reservoir, which had been drained only a short time before.

They apparently breed only in rapid streams and have remarkable power of resisting food and wave of the current. The scarcity of such streams near the settled parts of the Canal Zone and the difficulty of reaching them through the jungle, even when a trail has been cut, probably accounts for the late discovery of the species.
—HUNTER HUNCHES IS ADVICE OF DOCTOR.
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 26 (AP)—Persons with a "hunch" should be hunched in their superstitions in some cases, else disregard of it may result in an unfavorable psychological reaction, in the opinion of Dr. William A. White, well known alienist of the George Washington University Medical School.
The psychiatrist told his colleagues at the Interstate Post-Graduate Association of North America assembly here that this should be applied particularly to airplane pilots.
"The nerve reliability of a pilot is lessened if he flies when a 'hunch' or superstition warns him not to," he said. "If a pilot has a superstition about flying on Friday the 13th, regardless of how groundless the fear may really be, he should not be asked to fly on such a date because the fear itself will lessen his nerve reliability."

Bran muffins

WAIT until you see those muffins as they come from the oven. Wonderfully light and fluffy—never soggy. And when you break one open and let a lump of butter melt in that tender texture, get ready for a taste experience such as you never had before. No other muffin ever had such a rich, nut-like flavor.

This recipe makes the best you ever ate
2 tablespoons shortening, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup sour milk, 1 cup Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, 1 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder.
Cream shortening and sugar together, add egg. Mix and sift flour, soda, salt, and baking powder. In creamed mixture add ALL-BRAN, then milk, alternately with sifted dry ingredients. Pour into greased muffin tins, and bake in moderate oven (375° F.) for 20 minutes. Yield: either 8 large or 12 medium size muffins. If sweet milk is used instead of sour, omit soda and use 3 teaspoons baking powder.

The fine thing about eating these wonderful muffins is the health they bring you. For that cupful of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN helps supply your eliminative system with bulk and fiber that prevents constipation. So many foods in our diet—meat, eggs, milk, sugar, fats—lack this necessary roughage.
But muffins are not the only food where you can get healthful and tasty results by adding ALL-BRAN. Put it in dressings. Sprinkle it in soups. Mix it in griddle cake batter. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is equally effective for Guaranteed!

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold with this definite guarantee: Eat it according to directions. If it does not relieve constipation solely, we will refund the purchase price.

BELEGIANS TRAINING "UNTAMABLE" ELEPHANTS
Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 26 (AP)—How supposedly untamable African elephants are trained by Belgian Congo officials to become farm servants, each equivalent to a tractor "plus," is disclosed by members of a Harvard expedition recently returned from Africa. Frederick R. Wulain of Peabody Museum led the expedition.
The "plus" in the elephant's favor is that after doing a day's work equivalent to that of a tractor he gathers his food free of cost in the forest, where it grows wild, while the gasoline "feed" of tractors is expensive in the Congo.
African elephants long had a reputation for incurable ferocity, and the accomplishment of the Belgians in learning how to domesticate them is new. The successful training is due to catching the elephants young. Numbers of them have been given to settlers for farm work.
The Peabody expedition was sponsored by the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Fund.
Never hesitate to ask for advice—everybody likes to give it.

NOTICE
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the undersigned, Board of Education of Rosendale Union Free School District No. 1 of the Town of Rosendale, in the County of Ulster, in the State of New York, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the front door of the public school house in said district on the 1st day of November, 1928, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Twenty bonds of Rosendale Union Free School District No. 1 of the Town of Rosendale aforesaid, dated November 1, 1928, of the par value of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1500.00) each, one each of said bonds being due and payable on the 1st day of November in each of the years 1929 to 1945, both inclusive, and making a total for said twenty bonds of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00).
Said bonds bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable annually on the 1st day of November of each year.
Said bonds are issued pursuant to the provisions of Section 280 of the Education Law and Section 9 of the General Municipal Law and pursuant to the action of a majority of the voters of said school district at a special meeting held on the 19th day of September, 1928, and in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Education of said district duly adopted on the 19th day of October, 1928.
Said bonds will not be sold for less than par.
The school district will not be liable to the purchaser or any other person for any allowance for attorney's fees in relation to said bonds or to investigating the validity thereof.
The terms of sale may be obtained by applying therefor to the undersigned or to any member of the said Board of Education.
Written proposals may be submitted in accordance with the terms of sale.
All bids must be in lump sum only and not a percentage basis.
The bonds will first be offered separately and then in a block.
In the event the aggregate of the bids for the separate bonds exceeds the highest bid, all the bonds will be struck down to the highest bidder for the individual bond, but in the event the highest bid for the bonds in block equals or exceeds the aggregate of the amount of bids for the single bonds, the bonds will be struck off to the block bidder.
No bid shall be binding upon the district until the bonds have been offered both ways and actually struck off to a purchaser.
Trusted at Rosendale, N. Y., October 19, 1928.
Board of Education of Rosendale Union Free School District No. 1, By: HARRY T. TEN HAGEN, Pres. WARREN LADGONE, Clerk.

THE WORLD HAS A NEW AND FINER MOTOR CAR

"400" Special Six Sedan $1345
(F. O. B. Factory (no destination))

"Welcome!" That's what America has said to the Twin-Ignition Motor

FROM the very day of the introduction of the new Nash "400", keen public interest has surrounded the new Twin-Ignition motor—
People everywhere are telling other people that they've never driven a car with so much sparkle and enthusiasm in its action—
—Or one that is as smooth and quiet at every speed, clear up to the top—
—Or one that needs so little gasoline.
Twin ignition, with high compression in the valve-in-head motor means more power, more snap, more speed, using ordinary gasoline, and less of it.
Before you buy your new car, come in. We'll give you the key to a Twin-Ignition-Motored "400". You take it out, and take a ride. That's all we ask!

 In the first three months following the "400" introduction "400" sales were nearly 75,000 cars, 14,000 more than the total of the best previous July, the best previous August and the best previous September in all Nash history.

Junior League Ball a Success

The chairman of the entertainment committee for the Junior League Ball reports that the ball last Friday was a great success financially as well as socially. Definite figures cannot be had for some time but the receipts at the door show that the attendance was over eleven hundred people and that all of the eighteen boxes were sold. So many enthusiastic comments have been made about the beauty and effectiveness of the decorations and so many questions about the expense incurred have come to the ears of the chairman of decorations that she wishes to report that her expenses were not very high owing to the wonderful spirit of cooperation which she encountered not only among the girls of the League but in all the firms and organizations in town with whose help the decorations were achieved. The chairman of the decorations committee wishes particularly to mention among those who helped to insure the success of the ball, Mayor Dempsey, the board of public works, the Kingston Daily Freeman, Sergeants Fitzgerald, Benz, Dickson and Woerner of the New York state armory and wishes to acknowledge donations of time, money or material from the following firms or individuals:

RESEARCH ON COLDS IS AIDED BY STUDENTS

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 26 (P).—Hoping to be able some day to use for the benefit of their patients the new knowledge which is being sought, 140 Johns Hopkins medical students are voluntarily contributing themselves to the investigation of the common cold, being conducted by a committee of scientists and physicians of the university faculty.

Their part in the undertaking, which is provided for in the $195,000 John J. Abel Fund for Research on the Common Cold established early this year by the Chemical Foundation of New York, is to submit to daily examinations by a group of physicians and specialists. The purpose of these examinations is to observe the earliest developments in the wide variety of conditions now grouped loosely under the designation of common cold, to assist the clinicians and specialists in symptomatology in the task of separating them into specific groups and types so that they can be studied and treated more effectively.

Dr. James A. Doull, associate professor of epidemiology in the school of hygiene and public health, who is responsible for correlating the efforts of the research workers engaged by the committee, has found the students so enthusiastic that 65 volunteers were obtained from among the 71 enrolled in the first-year class of the school of medicine.

With the opening of the school year and the approach of the season when common colds become most prevalent, the committee hopes to get the scientific phases of the five-year program of investigation rapidly under way. The summer has been devoted chiefly to the work of organization and the mapping out of programs for various lines of research to be undertaken, including the bacteriological, etiological, immunological and epidemiological investigations, as well as the physiological, pathological and clinical studies.

In addition to the student volunteers, Dr. Nathan B. Herman of the school of medicine, in charge of the daily examinations, has obtained similar cooperation from a number of working women. Dr. V. A. Van Volkenberg of the school of hygiene, working on the epidemic aspects of the malady, is organizing a group of 100 or 125 families for observation.

GERMAN SAYS WHALE HAS LARGEST BRAIN

Hamburg, Germany, Oct. 26 (P).—The fishes had an inning at the German Congress of Natural Sciences here when the whale was declared the only mammal entitled to the record of possessing the largest brain.

Professor W. Veygandt, Hamburg neurologist, conferred a prevalent belief that the largest brain claim is shared by whales, elephants and man. As a matter of fact, he said, the whale only justified the claim, the largest whale ever caught having a brain weighing 7,999 grams. The human brain seldom exceeds an average weight of 1,280 to 1,450 grams in the male and 1,140 to 1,240 in the female.

Handwriting of
Chief Wood Read

This week's issue of the Detective Magazine, published by the Detective Publishing Company, contains an article by John Fraser, graphologist, which he analyzes the handwriting of police chiefs. Chief of Police Wood of Kingston, Thomas Wood of Oswego, James J. Long of Falls, Henry J. Clayton of Bank, N. J., and J. S. Lane of Kingston, N. C.

In discussing the handwriting of Chief Wood, Mr. Fraser says that it is critical mind and that he is a leader for details; that he is gifted with the power of acute discrimination and that he is not only a law officer but a law observer. The handwriting of Chief Wood is described as being in some cases absent, frequently revealing a quality of naturalness and mind possessing capability. The chief is a well-informed man and appears to be a student of human nature. The handwriting of the chief's "Y" shows he desires and looks for appreciation when he has done a good job which is only natural and shows he is human. First and last, he is a man of integrity and straightforwardness and a good citizen of manhood.

Final Lectures in Child Guidance

Apparently the mothers of young children in the city of Kingston do not fully understand that they might share with the mother of the country outside the city in the privilege of hearing six lectures on Child Guidance, by Dr. J. M. Wilbur, of Cornell University, free of any charge.

By the alertness of Miss Nance, director of the Ulster County Home Bureau, Dr. Wilbur's lectures from the State College of Home Economics, connected with Cornell University, were secured for Ulster County to give these expert child psychology lectures (given, however, in absolutely understandable English) to the women of the county. This most practical and exceedingly valuable work is being made possible by the Rockefeller Foundation which sends out only the most expert information to the people of any community.

To be enabled to help a child develop according to the most scientific methods of the present time into a wholesome person having self control, who is well-balanced, not nervous, independent, cooperative, calm, efficient and happy, rather than one who is unwholesome, without self control, unbalanced, dependent, resisting, irritable, inefficient, unhappy, is a rare privilege and under ordinary conditions a costly one.

already given as she did on Thursday, when she showed from the history of child training, how in the old days children were considered born evil and were guided solely by punishment, or advice and therefore allowed all sorts of things because of their curiosity, which is a very natural thing and we know that the child is born capable of learning. Dr. Wilbur gave illustrations of how to guide that child to be of the right kind in the best way, and in the three lectures to be given in Kingston she will tell of the progress made for in the further guidance of children. The illustrations of what she has to tell are shown in experiments at the laboratory at Cornell University or in her own experience with some of the hundred children under the lectures of deepest interest because they describe living children and their problems.

Leather Bag Is Smartest for Any Type of Costume

The leather bag is still the smartest bag for every type of costume. For town wear with the new tweed suits, and ensembles of smooth surface woollens there are new pouch and envelope shapes in plain shoe, calf and suede. The perfection of their tailored lines is enhanced by the intrinsic beauty of the leather materials which may be in black or the unusual "mixed" browns as well as high shades of autumn blue, green or red. Novel fastenings sponsored by such eminent designers as Patou, Lanvin, Chanel and Lelong, lend fashion interest to these tailored bags. Then there are small bags of black or brown antique suede, for more formal costumes and new evening bags in beautiful shades of antique suede to exactly match the subtle tones of lovely frocks in lace, transparent velvet, chiffon, satin and mola.

Real Charity

In a recent sermon the pastor tells us that as man grows older he grows more charitable. Let us hope so. If the added years do not make us more tolerant of the weaknesses of our fellows, more kind and patient, we do not deserve to grow old. If the years are to have no such effect on us we should die young and give room to folks with better hearts and better intention.—Grove Patterson.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

THE "TOWN-ABOUT" COAT FOLLOWS A STRAIGHT LINE

New York—Stunning though many of the circular and ruffled coats surely are, the straight slim-line coat remains a general favorite for travel and the dress coat as well.

Latest advice from Paris, where the fashionables have returned before putting homeward or to the most fashionable "cure", tell the same story. While color has crept into coats as well as into the dresses and into the construction of the smartest motor cars, the black coat remains unchallenged for dress wear. It may be trimmed with black fur or with the youthful, flattering lynx. Beaver has been recommended for trimming, either black or colored coats; it is approved on both and grey furs of the curly variety have advocates, not alone because they are relatively inexpensive, but because they are youthful.

Steamer or Motor Coat in a Model of Rodier Fabric in Shades of Brown lined with Natural Cashmere. The Fur is Beaver. (Copyright, 1928, by Fairchild.)

Sports coats of Rodier stuffs, usually rich in design and color, may or may not be fur lined, belted or unbelted. Coats of this ilk are never bordered and often are sans fur. Dress coats are inclined to uneven borders, and to collars of the frame-the-face variety. Shawl collars have little interest; it is the high standing collar which may bury the chin on frosty days which has the widest appeal.

The powers regulating such things appear to have decreed that one wears a brightly colored frock under a black coat and a black frock under a colored one. This may seem like a breaking away from the ensemble idea, but on the contrary is another interpretation of it.

OUR DAILY PATTERN

A Simple Apron Style 6284. Checked gingham with white bias binding is here pictured. This model is also good in cotton prints, in satces or in cambric, lawn or dimity. The bib portions shaped in pointed outline at the neck and lower edge are joined to a flaring skirt section and are held on the shoulders with a yoke band. Tie strings hold the apron over the back. The pattern for this pleasing model is cut in one size: Medium. To make the apron as illustrated will require 1 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. To finish with bias binding requires 6 1/2 yards. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y.

New Lawyers Enter Murder Trial

E. A. Wildy (right) and A. J. Laing (left) hopped into the defense side of a murder trial the day after they were admitted to the Colorado bar. Both are graduates of the Denver University Law School.

Leadville, Colo., Oct. 25 (AP)—Tackling the defense of a murder case the day after they were admitted to practice before the Colorado bar is the unusual record of A. J. Laing, 25, and E. A. Wildy, 26, who were graduated from the Denver University law school last spring and admitted to the bar in September.

Laing, whose home is in Leadville, was persuaded by relatives of Charles Graves, 26, charged with the murder of his wife here July 24, 1927, to take the defense of the case, and as soon as the two schoolmates were admitted to practice in this state a partnership with Wildy was formed and the defense of Graves by Laing & Wildy formally announced.

During the past summer, while awaiting admittance to the Colorado bar, Laing filled an unexpired term as justice of the peace here. Wildy lives in Denver and was one of the honor graduates from the Denver University law school last spring.

Charles Graves, charged with murder, was a popular high school student and athlete here and is said to have shot his wife when he became enraged by the attentions alleged to have been paid her by other men. He was placed under arrest immediately after the shooting on July 24, 1927, and lodged in the Lake county jail. He escaped, however, shortly afterwards by sawing through the bars of his cell. He was apprehended by authorities at Santa Ana, Cal., last September.

New Conductor For Schubert Club

It will be of interest to the musicians of Kingston to learn that Miss Ethel Watson Usher, well-known coach and concert accompanist of New York city, will assume the conductorship of the Schubert Choral Club in absence of the regular conductor, Miss Virginia Los Kamp.

Miss Los Kamp sails on Saturday of this week for Europe and after a short visit on the continent will leave for South America. Miss Usher plans to fill some concert engagements while abroad and to study the native songs of Chili while in that country.

In addition to the work with the choral club, Miss Usher will coach Miss Los Kamp's voice pupils in repertoire. Miss Usher's work is not new to Kingston audiences as she has appeared as accompanist for well-known artists in this city and has also appeared as assisting artist with the Schubert Choral Club in several of its concerts.

The Schubert Club is holding rehearsals on Friday evenings at 7:30 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium. Young women interested in music will be cordially welcomed into this organization.

PARASITE WASP IS LATEST
ENEMY OF THE CANE BORER

Trichogramma Is Being Groomed for Battle With Pest That Ravages Sugar Cane.

Baton Rouge, La.—Groomed to fight the sugar cane borer in Louisiana, a tiny parasite wasp called trichogramma has become so proficient that more than 35 per cent of the borer eggs in an experimental field here were destroyed by the insect during the last week in July.

The wasp attacks and destroys more than 150 species of crop pests by parasitizing the eggs of the insects with its own. Louisiana entomologists invoked the aid of the trichogramma in 1927, when ravages of the cane borer menaced the sugar industry of the state.

Left to its own resources in the field, the wasp was slow in developing. Laboratories for propagation were set up and were so successful that 94,000 wasps were liberated between June 7 and 23, this year.

W. E. Hinds, state university entomologist, says the practicability of large-scale laboratory production of the trichogramma has been demonstrated fully.

"It has been shown," he explains, "that sheets of parasitized eggs may be mailed to any part of the United States or Canada with a fair prospect of their arriving in good condition. The method of distribution on sheets of paper is to cover the paper with unparasitized moth eggs and then allow the wasp to deposit its eggs in the moth eggs."

The trichogrammas hatch first, and the larva uses the moth eggs for food. It easily is possible to handle from 40,000 to 50,000 host eggs on one sheet of paper and to obtain 20,000 to 30,000 parasites therefrom.

While he is pleased with the success in combating the cane borer, Doctor Hinds says it will require some time to determine the plan's value on an extensive commercial basis.

New Research Uncovers

Ancient Bible Cities

Jerusalem.—In its endeavors to locate the places mentioned in the Bible, the American school of oriental research, has now unearthed ancient Dvir, referred to at various points, for instance, in the Book of the Chronicles, either under this name or the name of Kiryath Sefer.

The latter means "Town of the Book," and one opinion therefore has it that in the time of the kings the state archives were kept there.

Various indications led Prof. F. W. Albright, the director of the institute to assume that the lost town must have been situated on the site of Tel Mirsim near Bersheba. The excavations undertaken by Professor Albright at this spot proved his assumption to have been correct to a surprising degree.

Belgrade, Yugo-Slavia.—A practical grammar of the Serbo-Croat language for general use, by Prof. John Deneley Prince, American minister of Yugo-Slavia, is the Christmas gift that the minister will make to Yugo-Slavia upon the completion of his latest educational work in December.

The preface written by the author covers a page and a half and sets forth the difference between Serbian and Croat. The minister says that it is time that the world shall know that Serb and Croat are what Americans is to English. Doctor Prince has submitted the proofs of his latest work to the minister of education.

On the Tree Top

Plants that perch on tree tops have been discovered in British Guiana. Another Vet

Newton Ewing, of Manhattan, Kansas, is a candidate for the oldest Hoover voter honors. He will be 97 years old in June and has voted for 19 Presidents. He voted first in State elections in Indiana in 1884 and two years later supported John C. Fremont for President.

New Tweed Serviceable; It Is Soft and Pliable

Do you realize just how good looking the new tweed is? Many of us have memories of tweeds in days gone by as fabrics all very well for cold weather wear if you wanted something durable and substantial.

The new tweed is ideal. It is serviceable, because it is tweed, but it is soft and pliable and can be made—has been made—into frocks and coats and suits of the utmost charm. Another thing about it—it is made in beautiful colors. Grays that are slightly softened with brown, browns that are cooled a little with gray, blues that suggest green, and greens that have an overtone of blue.

So between the two characteristics—lovely colors and soft, flexible texture—the new tweed is quite desirable. Very often the tweed coat is bound or bordered with a darker, plain color. Brown on one of the brownish gray coats, dark green on one of the greenish blue coats.

Lace Is Popular for Frocks and Trimmings

Lace is a notable fabric in the fashions not only for evening but also for formal afternoon frocks. In the latter case it takes on a tailored look. Worth showed in his collection ensembles consisting of short jacket and skirt of lace with georgette blouse. Both thread laces and silk laces are in favor and in addition to black, white and natural there is a vogue for the colored laces. Besides being used for the entire frock, lace recurs frequently as trimming.

There are few of us who can believe that lace could be spoken of in terms of jersey yet some of the smartest jerseys for sports and daytime wear are very light and shown in patterns that resemble tatted wheels, spiderwebs, fans and other lacy designs. There is even a jersey in a real macramé pattern. Rodier is responsible for a group of particularly lovely lace jerseys.—Woman's Home Companion.

Lamb's Ideal Poet

Charles Lamb was an enthusiastic admirer of Edmund Spenser and regarded his flights of fancy and imagery as so far above other poets' efforts that it required the high artistic sense developed by studying the art of writing poetry to appreciate Spenser.

Moon's Color Changes

The moon takes on various colors according to the condition of the atmosphere of the earth, through which the light must pass to reach us.

State Automobile Assoc'n Officers

LaMonte V. Simpkins of Chester County on Board of Directors—John M. Wright Elected President.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Official announcement was made today from headquarters of the New York State Automobile Association of this city of the new officers elected to head the organization of motorists during 1926-27.

John H. Wright, president of the Jamestown Telephone Corporation and other telephone companies in Pennsylvania, has been elected president of the State Automobile Association, succeeding H. A. Meldrum of Buffalo.

Previous to his election to the presidency, Mr. Wright had been vice president of the State Association and he is also president of the Jamestown Automobile Club. For years he has been active in the interests of the motorist.

Edwin M. Tierney, head of the Arlington Hotel at Binghamton, has been elected first vice president of the State Association. Mr. Tierney is a director and officer of the Binghamton Automobile Club.

Owen B. Ausperger, president of the New York Automobile Club, has been elected second vice president of the State Association. Mr. Ausperger is active in business interests in both Buffalo and New York.

Hugh M. Bowden, former president of the Ogdensburg Automobile Club, has been elected third vice president.

Claude J. Holding, owner of the Wellington Hotel of Albany and president of the Albany Auto Club, was re-elected treasurer and Warner Bates of Albany was reappointed secretary.

The board of directors of the New York State Automobile Association for the year ahead is as follows:

Owen B. Ausperger, New York; Hugh M. Bowden, Ogdensburg; J. Mack Young, New York; James Mangum, Rochester; Alexander Park, Sherrill; Edwin M. Tierney, Binghamton; Frank Stein, Schenectady; Harry L. Abbott, Buffalo; Harry E. Barnes, Middletown; C. P. Luther, Olean; C. T. Lynch, Geneva; LaMonte V. Simpkins, Kingston; Frank J. Smith, Rochester; John H. Wright, Jamestown; H. A. Meldrum, Buffalo; Charles G. Bennett, Utica; H. W. Robbins, Medina; H. W. Smith, Syracuse; F. Rae Surprenant, Glens Falls; Charles F. Foley, Lockport; Claude J. Holding, Albany.

The first meeting of the new board of directors will be held at Albany early in November.

Leaps and Bounds Typified

The automobile industry, says one of its executives, is growing by leaps and bounds, which, as a result of it, is exactly the way the pedestrians are going.

Divorce Granted Lady Northesk

Edinburgh, Scotland, Oct. 26 (AP).—A decree of divorce has been granted Lady Northesk, the former Lady Brown, from the Earl of Northesk. The suit was undefended. The ground of the action was misconduct by Lord Northesk in Paris in January of this year. The couple were married in Chicago in July, 1922.

Jessie Brown of Buffalo, who at one time danced in the Ziegfeld Follies, and the Earl of Northesk, a British peer, were married in Chicago, July 19, 1922. By the marriage the American girl became the eleventh countess of Northesk. During the past year Peggy Hopkins Joyce, the actress, arrived in New York on the Aquitania. Lord Northesk also was a passenger and the actress was quoted as saying that the English peer would be her fifth husband when he had obtained a divorce from Lady Northesk. At the same time Lord Northesk volunteered the information that the final decree would be granted at Edinburgh late this fall and that then he would be free to marry.

Robinson, Democratic Candidate, Quoted in Warm Praise of Herbert Hoover

Arkansas Senator, Smith Running Mate, Called His Counsel and Leadership an Inspiration to the World

"Herbert Hoover suspended the performance of his duties in the cabinet and came in person to where the difficulties were greatest. His presence, his advice, his counsel and leadership are an inspiration to men in high places throughout the world," said Senator Robinson, Democratic candidate for Vice President, speaking before a flood relief ceremony in Little Rock, Ark., on June 25, 1927.

L. W. Cunningham, of the staff of Colorado Springs Gazette, in a letter to William H. Hill, New York State Chairman of the Hoover-Curtis Campaign Committee, recalled the speech eulogizing Hoover and compared it with the attacks that Robinson is now making from the platform upon the Republican candidate.

"Robinson bears false witness, well knowing its falsity," declares Cunningham. "Nothing that Mr. Hoover has said or done since that time is being criticized by Robinson. He is criticizing only the record of the man of whom he said in his Little Rock speech:

"Few men in the history of mankind have exemplified exceptional talent in supplying the necessities and in relieving the suffering of their fellow beings. The guest of honor at these ceremonies, Mr. Herbert Hoover, is noted as the world's greatest relief administrator."

"His career, apparently, has not reached the climax, but it is already distinguished by many unusual experiences and praiseworthy achievements."

"The outstanding triumphs of Mr. Hoover's efforts consist in the organization and direction of tremendous relief forces in periods of appalling calamity or national peril."

"He did not lead armed troops to battle during the late world conflict; but he was called to assume a responsibility of equal, if not greater, importance. His task was to mobilize the nation's food supply and to restrain the greed and avarice of profiteers."

"Bearing the commission of our great chief and wartime president, Woodrow Wilson, Mr. Hoover opposed and halted the deadly advance of hunger, pestilence and famine following the war in Belgium, Russia and other foreign lands. Hospitals for the sick and wounded! Food and clothing for the victims of hate and wrath! Among the suffering and the dying he bore aloft a banner, saluted with respect and love in every civilized land—the banner of the Red Cross."

"Then the Senator referred to the picture of the Mississippi Valley flood and said:

"Who would not prefer the glory of leadership in the cause of mercy and relief to the blood-stained insignia of a conqueror?"

"This large assembly and these ceremonies attest the appreciation of the people of Arkansas for the unusual service which Mr. Hoover has rendered by special commission of the president in a time of great distress. He suspended the performance of duties in the cabinet and came in person to where the difficulties were greatest. His presence, his advice, his counsel and leadership are an inspiring example to men in high places throughout the world."

"Mr. Hoover's heart has not only shared the sorrows and burdens of the passing flood disaster; he assumes a task which he might avoid and leave to others to perform. We are proud of him as much because of his readiness to advise and assist in the permanent solution of the problem of flood prevention and control, so that the future may be safeguarded against the loss of life and property which came in the spring of this year. Legislation for comprehensive and permanent protection against flood will find in him a courageous advocate. His recommendations will influence and probably shape the suggestions of the president in his message to Congress."

"We have not forgotten, we will never forget the human touch, the kindly spirit, the friendly sympathy, the effective aid which Mr. Hoover and his associates brought in a time of strain and need."

NEW YORK NEEDS NO MAYORS, NOW HAS 12

Locality Bosses Take Their Jobs Seriously.

New York.—Mayor Walker's many visits to other cities have inspired the rather satiric suggestion that the city charter be rewritten to provide New York with two chief executives—one to travel and develop new friends for the city, the other to remain at home and tend to the municipal kitting.

In truth, New York is abundantly equipped with mayors. Even with Mr. Walker away, the town is still blessed with the guidance of a dozen mayors. None of these others, true enough, may fill the mayoral chair at city hall or stand on the steps with Grover Whalen to pass out golden eyes. Each, however, is a potential of no mean standing and influence in his own community.

Inquire on Grand street for the mayor and people will point out "Stitch" McCarthy. On Allen street they will point you to Max Dick's office, not the city hall, when asked how to get to the mayor's.

Winning the Position. New York takes its "locality mayors" quite seriously, and they take their titular honors with earnestness. Years of effort are sometimes necessary before the post is achieved—years of philanthropy and good fellowship.

One of the most strangely entrenched is Max Dick. The title "Mayor of Allen street" was given by popular acclaim. Along Allen street they bow gratefully before Max Dick, and small wonder. Even when the war rent riots were raging, Dick continued in his tenements his long established schedule of five dollars a room. This alone was a big enough factor in his popularity. For years, moreover, he has given substantial sums to parents—$50 at the birth of each child and $150 if a ninth enters a family. Race suicide is unknown in his tenements.

Two years ago Louis Zeitler, a former sidewalk, conceived the idea of organizing the "Locality Mayors of New York, Imperial Metropolis of the World." Though the organization banquet of the mayors at the Astor was threatened with disruption when each presented himself as a candidate for the post of chief mayor, harmony finally prevailed, and Jake Spira, mayor of Washington Heights, was elected as chief mayor, with "Stitch" McCarthy as deputy. None of the mayors could formulate a set of functions for the two offices, but the incumbents desired no duties; the titles were enough.

"Stitch" McCarthy, born Sam Rothenberg, a bondsman by vocation, later confided that he feared at the meeting that his recent removal to a home on St. Nicholas avenue would be disclosed. He felt that his constituents would consider St. Nicholas avenue too close to Riverside drive for the mayor of Grand street.

Has Record Wardrobe. No little annoyance came into Joe Levy's life when he moved to Riverside drive. As mayor of Second avenue and Duke of Essex street, this picturesque lawyer of the Essex Market court, resplendent in silk hat, cut-away coat, malacca cane, spats, and diamond stickpin, might be seen at an Easter parade on the East side. His magnificence of dress, together with his boast of a record wardrobe, his ownership of an expensive car, his removal to Riverside drive, and his acquisition of a valet, inspired other aspirants for his honors to urge his deposition or abdication. But a busy few days among his constituents quelled the rebellion. As a special concession he removed the stick pin and tossed aside his Palm beach suit.

A few years ago a rival sought Levy's title as mayor of Second avenue. Polls were opened in the kitchen of a Second avenue restaurant and Levy won, 67 to 64. Avenue B recognizes Frank Dostal as its mayor. In the Bronx Max Reich is sponsor for the welfare of Wilkins avenue, Morris Eisenstein looks after Bryant avenue, and Charlie Lynch takes care of Grand Concourse. H. Stuart Morrison is hailed as mayor of the West Wood section of Brooklyn. Nat Vlodinger lords it over Eldridge street, Ed Rosenstein over Broome street, Herbert Nathan over St. Nicholas avenue, Herman Zoller over Forsyth street, and Phil Kardonick over Delancey street. This incomplete roster should still those who urge that New York needs two mayors. It already has a multitude of them.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, Oct. 26.—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets)—Supplies of white potatoes were liberal today. Trading, however, was again slow and the market continued rather dull. Upstate New York round white potatoes, in bulk, peddled out at $2.50-$2.75 per 100 pounds. Long Island green mountains realized $2.40-$2.50. One year ago upstate potatoes wholesaled at $2.50-$2.75 while Long Island's offerings brought $4.35-$4.50.

Concord grape prices further strengthened with the market firm, especially on well-graded and fancy fruit. Most business on 12-quart baskets was at 65-70 cents.

Arrivals of domestic yellow onions were rather light. The market ruled firm with values hardening, particularly on fine, large stock. Western and central New York white Danish cabbage was in better demand but price changes were few and small in a steady market. Jobbing sales on bulk stock were at $35-$40 per ton.

During the preceding week, Wisconsin started 425 cars of cabbage to terminal markets, New York 225 and Minnesota 125.

Offerings of cut carrots were moderate. Upstate consignments were again sharply competed against by shipments from the middle-western states.

Apple trading was more active, particularly on fancy large greenings and well-colored soft table varieties, such as McIntoshes and Wealthies. Prices tended upward. The very finest bushel baskets of greenings commanded as high as $2.25; McIntoshes $3.75 and Wealthies $2.

Supplies of celery were moderate. The demand was generally light and the market rather sluggish. Stock in the rough, packed in two-thirds crates from the western part of the state, sold at $2-$3 on the fair to good and $1-$1.75 on the poor to ordinary.

The demand for upstate New York lettuce was again very light, possibly on account of the unattractive quality. Supplies were light but values averaged a shade lower. Crates of 24 heads of big Boston jobbed out at 40-$1.50.

Lettuce shipments from this state during the previous week amounted to 57 cars, as compared with the movement of 14 during the corresponding week last season.

THE WHY of SUPERSTITIONS

By H. IRVING KING

APPLE SEEDS

WHAT maiden has not, at some time in her life, sought to divine the future of her love matters by taking the seeds out of an apple and counting them with the following mystic incantation:

One I love, two I love, three I love I say;
Four I love with all my heart and five I cast away.
Six he loves, seven she loves, eight they both love,
Nine he comes, ten he tarries,
Eleven he courts and twelve he marries.

We have here the old, old magic of arithmancy, the magic of numbers, practiced by the Babylonians and forming a part of the philosophy of the Pythagoreans and the Platonists. Apple seeds are used because in the minds of the ancients there was a "heap of magic" in apples. A long list might be made of the appearance of apples and apple-trees in the mystic lore and mythology of the ancients and in modern superstitions inherited therefrom. In the case of the love charm under discussion, however, we have to do only with the relation of the apple to Juno. At her marriage with Jupiter the earth goddess gave golden apples to Juno. These apples became the celebrated apples of her Hesperides which it was one of Hercules' labors to obtain. Because of this exploit of the apples of Hesperides apples were offered at the shrine of Hercules instead of an ox or a ram. Thus as apples were the offering of the Earth Goddess to Juno, and as Juno was the patroness of marriage, apple seeds are peculiarly fitting for purposes of divination by marriageable maidens.

"Shooting" Less Hazardous

Likelihood of a premature explosion is reduced in shooting oil wells by using a time bomb a western engineer has devised, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. It is set off by means of an alarm clock mechanism at any interval desired, from one to eleven hours. This gives the operators ample time to pull out the casing before the shot goes off.

The bomb itself is of cast iron, 10 inches long, and contains slightly more than a pound of dynamite which explodes the shot previously lowered into the well.

New Pastor at Glasco

Ulster Blood in Two Candidates

One of the remarkable features of the campaign in that one of Herbert Hoover's ancestors was a New York Revolutionary soldier from Ulster county, Jacobus Winer, who was a member in the First Regiment of the Ulster County Militia of which Colonel Johannes Snyder was commander. This interesting fact was developed by the Hon. Frank B. Steele, formerly a resident of Ulster county, who is the secretary general of the Sons of the Revolution and who recently has approved the application of Theodore Hoover of Palo Alto, California, who is the brother of the candidate for the presidency, for membership in that society.

An equally interesting fact is that Franklin Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for governor, is one of the trustees of the Senate House Association of Kingston. In a recent letter to Judge Clearwater, the president of the association, relative to the association's activities, Mr. Roosevelt said, "As you probably know, the son of the first Roosevelt who came over here was a resident of Esopus from about 1665 until about

Eastern Elevens Out for Revenge

New York, Oct. 26 (AP)—The time has come for the squaring of some football accounts outstanding since last fall. A half dozen eastern college elevens take the field tomorrow night at least an even chance to avenge defeats they suffered at the hands of the same opposition last fall.

Army's Cadets, well aware that there is no Bruce Caldwell at Yale this year, have high hopes of getting even with the Bulldogs of New Haven for that 10-6 defeat they were forced to accept last fall. Then Caldwell threw the pass that enabled Quarrier to score a touchdown against the Cadets; kicked the extra point and a goal to figure directly in every Yale score. But the Army feels that Cagel, Murrell and the rest of the Cadet backfield backed by a veteran line, can atone for that losing effort with plenty to spare.

Navy trimmed Pennsylvania, 12-6, in 1927 but most Annapolis supporters will be content if the Midshipmen notch within two touchdowns of the Red and Blue tomorrow. Navy scored a victory over Duke last Saturday after losing to Davis and Elkins, Brown College and Notre Dame while Penn has been cleaning up its first four opponents in easy fashion and simultaneously preserving its goal line inviolate.

Although beaten by Nebraska, the Orange horde of Syracuse is favored to leave State College with the Nittany Lion skin of Penn State in their possession as evidence that the 9-6 reverse of a year ago has been wiped off the books.

And then there are the Tartans of Carnegie Tech, undefeated so far and aiming to stay that way at the expense of their fellow-resident Pitt Panthers. Pitt overwhelmed Carnegie last year, 23-7, but the situation is somewhat different at this moment. The Panthers already have been beaten by West Virginia and Gibby Welch is missed. Howard Harpster is the Gibby Welch of Carnegie this year.

The Princeton-Cornell and Harvard-Dartmouth games are in the extremely doubtful class. Against three minor opponents, Cornell has appeared to advantage while Princeton has yet to show what it can do against a first-class opponent. The Tigers had their opportunity against Virginia but Princeton rooters are hoping that that scoreless tie is not indicative of the real strength of Bill Roper's men.

Dartmouth's machine has trampled all opposition under foot without trouble thus far, but Harvard, certainly, may be expected to put up the hardest kind of a fight. Still there are few hardy enough to venture an outright belief that the Crimson can avenge the 30-6 beating they took last fall.

The ties of 1927 remain to be decided one way or the other. Colgate comes to the Yankee Stadium determined to at least hold New York University to a tie, just as it did last year, but Chick Meacham's eleven, unbeaten and untied, believe it can add the up-staters to its list of victims. At Easton, Pa., there's a clash of two mighty elevens—Lafayette and West Virginia. These two battled to a 7-7 tie last season when neither compiled a particularly imposing record. This year West Virginia has been beaten once but since has battled its way back into the limelight with victories over four strong opponents. Only the scoreless tie with Bucknell mars Lafayette's slate.

New York fans will have two other major attractions to watch. Fordham entertains Washington and Jefferson at the Polo Grounds and, Columbia weakened by injuries, takes on undefeated Williams.

Georgetown and Holy Cross uphold eastern banners against intersectional rivals, the former against Duke and the latter against Marquette.

Big Schedule Of Golf Matches

New York, Oct. 26 (AP)—Golf professionals willing to take a chance, and most of them are, are offering their spiked shoes and polishing their niblicks for the winter hunt for glory and prize money in a score of tournaments. The "pros" are about to set out on a winding trail, leading west and south, to shoot for the big prizes waiting.

The first of the winter tournaments is the Oklahoma City open November 2-4 with the Oregon open on its heels and a dozen worthwhile events to follow in California. When the crack golfers have made new records for courses or themselves on the Pacific coast they will adjourn to Florida with side excursions into Arkansas and Texas on the way south. After Florida comes Pinehurst and by that time the personna of the Ryder cup team will have been decided and members of this all-star group will set their faces toward England to defend the trophy emblematic of the professional championship of the two countries. While the team is abroad the British open will be staged with all the invading pros trying their luck in this blue ribbon event.

Walter Hagen, the British champion, will, of course, play a defending role and Johnny Farrell, the open champion of the United States, will be there, as also will Leo Diegel, P. G. A. champion. These three stars and many of their fellows have a busy year ahead of them, for soon after their return from their foreign ventures the leading pros and amateurs will congregate at the wintered foot club, Mamaronock, N. Y., to make assault on Farrell's title.

The pros must start on their winter trek with well filled pockets, for there is no assurance that even the best of them will have their wallets refilled with prize money. Railway fare and hotel bills go on whether the players win, lose or draw, and strokes are translated into terms of dollars at every turn. One shot may mean the difference between $1,500 and $800 and another between $100 or nothing.

Dave Spittal, a picturesque pro, sized up the situation in a southern tournament once when he came in with a 72-hole score of 300.

"Will it be in the money?" he asked observers at the eighteen green.

He was assured that the best judgment of the assembled experts was that it would.

"Think it'll be carefree?" was his next question.

The audience did some figuring after consulting the score board and ventured an opinion that his score would get him just about the amount he spent to get to the tournament from his club, and back again.

"Fair enough," said Dave. "That's better than nothing, and there's always another one, where you may get more. An even break would be better, but I guess I'll have to pay the hotel bill and caddy fee and hope for better luck next time."

Another pro at a "big money" tournament had so little faith in his score that as he gave his caddy $20 after his last round he told the carrier "I hope that's enough. It's more than I'll get for playing."

Local Boxers Set For Newburghers

Charlie Molvin and Dewey Van Buren are both ready for their scuffles with Ray Halverson and Mickey Farkus, Newburghers, at the armory in the Billy City tonight. The Kingston men are in the "pink" of condition according to their trainer, Doc Studer, and will be capable of turning in good performances at the Newburgh arena.

Halverson has been waiting to get Molvin down the river for some time. He believes he can put it over on the Kingston scrapper, who has become a favorite with fans along the Hudson valley. His progress in the fist art is widespread now owing to the good men he beat in the local drill shed. The Molvin-Halverson bout has created a big demand for tickets in Newburgh. Many Kingstonians will also be among the spectators tonight to "root" for Charlie Molvin.

The card will contain 38 rounds of boxing, provided all the tilts go the limit, but the calibre of several scrappers promises that the show will be shortened by several knockouts. The first bout will go on at 8:15.

Athletes Get Too Much Attention, Says Teacher

Too much time is wasted celebrating athletic victories, by students, business men and the public generally, while a lamentable lack of appreciation is accorded academic attainments, Prof. Ira R. Cross of the University of California believes.

Addressing the Lions club at Berkeley, Calif., the economic instructor criticized Berkeleyans who greeted members of the university crews, victors in the Olympic shell races at Amsterdam. Only two men who rowed in the winning race arrived home, but schools were given a half holiday.

"If Doctor Millikan, discoverer of the cosmic ray, a truly wonderful feat, paid a visit to Berkeley, would he be given the welcome that these two oar pullers were accorded?" asked Professor Cross. "Of course not, he would hardly be noticed."

The professor also deplored Berkeley's attempt to attract industries, declaring that the city "cannot remain an intellectual center and also become a factory town."

How to Hold Head in Scrimmage

Assistant Coach R. Dunn instructing one of the Harvard lineemen how to hold his head in scrimmage during a workout for the Crimson grid team.

Sporting Squibs

Stanford university baseball team won ten of eleven games in its recent visit to Australia.

The Cards of 1926 clinched their pennant on Friday, September 25, the third last day of the season.

It has been decided to hold the Pacific coast conference track meet at the Sacramento stadium next May.

Some golfers are so lucky if they get into sand traps in Nevada they would strike gold with their niblicks.

A sixteen-year-old lad, Billy Boutell, won the championship tournament of the Minnetonka Golf club, in Minneapolis.

George Thie, 300 hitter while pitching for Cleveland, has a sore arm and may try to play in the outfield somewhere next year.

The wife of a well known outfielder says he was a poor provider, so we guess nothing can be said about "seasonal support."

The New York Athletic club is the oldest athletic club and the New York Yacht club is the oldest yacht club in the United States.

Coach Bob Neyland of the Tennessee football team says he will be satisfied if the Vols win four of their seven conference games this fall.

It looks as if Fordham's footballers ought to be able to get away with some fifty forward passes. Pete Winiowski, end, is only a foot 7.

By stealing an even 100 bases in 1890, Bill Lange of the Chicago Nationals, set a record that has never been equaled in the major leagues.

Judging by the success the gray-haired pitchers have had this year, the training camps in spring are going to look like a grand army encampment.

While with the Seattle club in 1925, "Red" Lucas, Cincinnati's star pitcher, proved his versatility by playing on lining in each position in one game.

Of all the golf championships he has won, Walter Hagen is proudest of the fact that he was the first American born golfer to win the British open title.

It is estimated that 40 per cent of the fans who root for the Montreal club of the International league are French and use that tongue to encourage the team.

Leon Vanderstuyft, Belgian bicycle rider, broke the world motor-paced record for sustained speed when he rode 76 1/2 miles in one hour at the Lias autodrome, Paris.

W. J. Holmes, owner of the Winnipeg Maroons of the American Hockey association has announced he has disposed of the club to the Patrick interests of the Pacific coast.

Amos Rusie, one of the greatest pitchers of all time, and Dennis L. Brothers, one of the heaviest hitters baseball has ever seen, are both employed at the Polo grounds now.

J. Cheever Cowdin, who has been playing polo for sixteen years, followed in the footsteps of his father, John E. Cowdin, who was a member of the international cup team in 1902.

Carl Mays, famous underhand pitcher of the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees of years ago and the Cincinnati Reds in more recent seasons, has been signed by the New York Giants.

Harry Heilmann ended the season of 1928 with one of the finest hitting streaks of his entire career. He hit safely in each of the last 21 games the Tigers played, making 48 hits in 51 times at bat for a percentage of .531.

"R" and the Tooth
Sparkling teeth, rather than sparkling eyes, are the best bet of Cupid, believes Doctor Frazer, head of the British Dental association. Increased attention to beauty of the teeth leads him to that conclusion, he says.

Ecil of Flattery
Flattery is an ensnaring quality and leaves a very dangerous impression. It swells a man's imagination, entertains his vanity and drives him to a galling upon his own person.—Collier.

K. H. S. Plays At Middletown

The Kingston High School football team will back up against the Middletown eleven at the Orange county team's gridiron Saturday. The locals hope to defeat the Midties in order to get new footing on the DISO League chances for championship.

The beating Coach Kins' men received last week from Poughkeepsie was very disheartening to the squad and a victory Saturday will mean a lot to the team. The Middletown squad is very strong on defense and this means that Kingston is going to earn every point they get.

The variety team the second team badly in scrimmage Thursday night. They scored two touchdowns and made one after touchdown point. The variety squad showed up better on offense than they have in some time. Before the Raymond Morton game they displayed the same brand of football and they continued to show in Thursday's game. The Rhodion name which Kingston took 19-0.

The men that will start Saturday's games are: L. E. Jones, L. T. McNamee, L. G. Clarke, C. Mohr, R. G. Fisher, R. T. Thompson, R. E. Shields, Q. B. Moughner, L. H. B. Mousian, R. H. H. Merrill, F. R. Ware.

The second team is playing Tanglefoot at the latter's gridiron Saturday. Coach Bailey has been drilling

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By the Associated Press.
London—Jack Hood, England, stopped Bruno Frattini, Italy, 17.
Teddy Baldock, England, knocked out Phil Lokoris, Australia, 13.
McKeeport, Pa.—Johnny Adelman, Philadelphia, outpointed Johnny Ryan, Erie, 11.

In the second round men heard the past week. The weekly opponents are much heavier for the rebel team's strategy will probably overcome the weight advantage.

Horse Racing Here Saturday

Local Horsemen Will Stage Harvest Races at Kingston Driving Park—Admission Free and Everyone Welcome.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock several of the local horsemen driving their own horses will stage a matinee race program at the Kingston Driving Park. Immediately following the races the Junior Sports Club of Kingston, under the direction of Sergeant John Hooton, will give a mounted drill and exhibition of horsemanship. The races and exhibition are free to the public and everyone is welcome. The grand stand will also be free to those who attend.

The horses and their drivers who will contest in the harvest races are: A. H. Gilderweerde, driving Peter Cox; J. David Schenck, driving Caraka; Dr. B. W. Maben, driving U. Maid; Judge William D. Brinnier, driving Reuben Direct; Elmer Paken and William R. Kraft, are also expected to enter their horses in the races.

ZEPPELIN TO RETURN

EARLY NEXT WEEK

New York, Oct. 26 (AP).—The Central Railroad of New Jersey was informed by its Lakehurst representative today that the Graf Zeppelin, having abandoned its western trip, hoped to start its return trip to Germany next Monday or Tuesday. The task of refueling the dirigible would begin immediately, the message said, adding that the ship would remain in its hangar over Sunday.

Varied Cases In Police Court

Port Ewen, Oct. 25.—Every voter in Port Ewen, who can, should get out early to cast their vote as there are a great many more people registered this year than ever.

Mrs. Sarah E. Hinesford, district deputy and her staff from Saugerties, installed the newly elected officers of Lakota Rebekah Lodge, No. 242, at Ulster Park Thursday evening: Noble Grand, Miss Mildred Short; vice grand, Mrs. Matilda Cahoon; secretary, Miss Rosa Davis; financial secretary, Elsie K. Hutchings; treasurer, H. W. Osborn; chaplain, Kittle S. Hood; conductor, Mrs. Rita Corbett; inside guard, Ernest Hutchings; outside guard, John Holliday; R. S. N. G., Mrs. Dinah Davis; L. S. N. G., Mrs. Margaret Warren; R. S. V. G., Mrs. Edith Story; L. S. V. G., Mrs. Mary Holliday. Visitors were present from Saugerties and Kingston. The lodge room was prettily decorated with the lodge colors, pink and green and presented a very inviting appearance. The retiring noble grand, Mrs. Adrianna Ellison, was presented with a jewel by Mrs. Josephine Harrington of Columbia Itsekah Lodge. Remarks were made by the district deputy and other visiting members. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant social hour was spent.

Every one is invited to the entertainment this evening in the Methodist Church house under the auspices of the Priscilla Society. Home made ice cream on sale.

There was a large attendance at the quilting held in the basement of the Reformed Church Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Turner of Mr. Reading, N. J., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Silas W. Perrine of Broadway.

Mildred Freer, chairlady of the mystery booth for the Reformed Church fair, requests the members and friends of the congregation to contribute articles to this booth.

The Christian Endeavor Local Union rally will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the Fair Street Reformed Church, Kingston. The Port Ewen Reformed Church, Christian Endeavor Society which has won the shield last year for the best percentage attendance at the rally will again attempt to bring home the shield. All members will meet in front of the church at 7:30 p. m. in order that they may go in Spinneweb's bus.

Wetner Hose Card Party.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Wetner Hose Company, No. 6, will hold a card party at their rooms in the Central Fire Station on Monday, November 5, at 8 p. m. Refreshments will be served and prizes awarded. The public is cordially invited.

Several openings for young men interested in arm life are open in the 7th Field Artillery, Madison Barracks, N. Y. Youths of this vicinity who would like information concerning this interesting branch of the service may obtain it by communicating with Corporal P. O'Connor, recruiting officer, stationed at the central post office.

Gun Club Shoot Saturday.

The gun shoot that is held by the Ulster Gun Club at the Widow Keator Farm on the Plank road each week will be held Saturday afternoon at the usual hour. Last week the shoot was not held in order that the sportsmen could attend the auto races at the driving park. The gun club welcomes visitors at this shoot and invites any who care to attend.

Merikle Will Be Elevated.

It is George H. Merikle, former Kingstonian, who will be elevated to the highest state office in the order, that of grand senior counselor, at the 1229 convention of the United Commercial Travelers to be held in Kingston next June, instead of "George W. Merikle" as erroneously stated in Thursday's Freeman.

Blue Sox Dance.

The Blue Sox Baseball Club will hold a dance in the school hall of Immaculate Conception parish, Delaware avenue, Monday night, October 29. A good time is promised.

About the Folks

Mrs. E. Massell entertained friends at a dinner and bridge at the Stay-seant Hotel on Thursday.

William J. Brophy was removed from 246 Washington avenue to the Benedictine Hospital in the ambulance on Thursday.

Mrs. Robert Bolce of Catskill, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the City of Kingston Hospital, has sufficiently recovered to be removed to the home of her mother, Mrs. C. J. Hutton of 215 West Chestnut street, where she will spend a week or so before returning to her home in Catskill.

MASONIC FAIR WILL BE BROUGHT TO CLOSE TONIGHT

The Masonic-Eastern Star fair will be brought to a close this evening at the Masonic Club rooms on Broadway, near Henry street. The entertainment program for tonight will be in charge of Miss Margaret Richards. There will be special numbers by George Silkworth, Bernard Kramer and W. G. Johnson. Dancing will follow the entertainment with music by Zucca's orchestra.

MOONEYLIT OPPOSED TO STATE ENFORCEMENT LAW

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 26 (AP).—After praising the stand of Governor Smith on prohibition and indicating his own opposition to another state enforcement law, such as the Mulligan-Gage law, which the governor repealed, Franklin D. Roosevelt was satisfied today he had declared himself on the liquor issue as Democratic nominee for governor.

"No one need question my position in favor of law enforcement," he said in an address here last night. "In view of the experience of other states, however, and in view of my conviction that an overwhelming respectable opinion in this state is opposed to the creation of a new system of machinery to add to the present confusion, graft and ineffectiveness of the federal law enforcing system under the present government in Washington, there is no practical advantage in enacting another Mulligan-Gage law as a part of the statutes of New York."

SELF SUPPORTING INMATES OF HOME ENTITLED TO VOTE

New York, Oct. 26 (AP).—Supreme Court Justice Ingraham ruled today that the 63 inmates of St. Francis Home were properly registered voters. Their right to register had been made the subject of court action, but motions to have their names stricken from the registration rolls were denied.

The action was brought by two Republican political workers who contended that registrants were disqualified because they were receiving charity. The home held that it was not an almshouse and that all its inmates supported themselves either through money payments or work.

ZION HARVEST HOME FESTIVAL WILL CLOSE TONIGHT

The annual harvest home festival of Franklin Street A. M. E. Zion Church was opened Thursday night with a good attendance. The program was rendered by the junior choir. It is expected that a very large attendance will be present tonight for the closing of the event. The program will be in charge of Mrs. M. Walker. The ladies will serve a clam chowder supper.

St. James Men to Meet.

A regular meeting of St. James Men's Club will be held Monday evening, October 29, at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is anticipated. A program of surprises and delicious "casts" will be furnished by the committee. Brothers Obenhaus, Irwin, Kotrady and Banes. Mr. Harder, a member of the club, will furnish entertainment from the air with one of his latest Radiolas.

Republican Rally At Marlborough

A big Republican rally was held Thursday evening at Marlborough at which time a high Hoover-Curtis-Outing banner was suspended from the bank in the village square. There was a real enthusiastic time with serial bombs and red fire to emphasize the event. Several speeches were delivered from a truck which served as a platform in addressing some 500 interested listeners. J. Edward Conway of this city spoke in the interest of Mr. Ottinger's candidacy for governor. John B. Sterley spoke on the qualifications of both Judge John C. Tracy and Hon. Sydney F. Foster for the Supreme court bench and Herbert E. Thomas, candidate for county treasurer, spoke on his own behalf and in support of the entire Republican ticket.

The Rev. Canon of Saugerties delivered a very interesting talk on Herbert Hoover in which he referred to Hoover's standing squarely upon the platform of the Republican party. All of the speeches were well received and there was considerable enthusiasm displayed.

LUTHERAN LADIES ENJOY CREEK LOCKS OUTING

Mrs. A. P. Hofman of Creek Locks entertained the ladies of Circle B of Trinity Lutheran Church at a luncheon on Thursday. After all had partaken of a fine menu a walk through the beautiful valley of Creek Locks was enjoyed. The landscape was a picture most attractive with its foliage of green and gold. Upon returning from the delightful walk, the ladies found plenty of amusement at the home of Mrs. Hofman, where they dressed clothes pins. Some of the artists were awarded prizes. All agreed that the day was most enjoyably spent and in showing their appreciation to those who planned it the ladies did not forget to consider the bus drivers, who were very courteous. The ladies, who attended the day's outing were Mrs. G. Leim, Mrs. Lieske, Mrs. Hauselman, Mrs. Lindhurst, Mrs. Paulus, Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Gross, Mrs. Baer, Mrs. Gill, Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. Kruger, Mrs. Albrecht, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. M. Baer, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Ellsworth, Mrs. W. H. Preitisch and Mrs. F. Bailey of Kingston.

Compensation Hearings Nov. 2

Referee L. A. Kilburn representing the State Industrial Commission will hear claimants for compensation under the employers' liability act on Friday, November 2, at the court house this city.

Shopkeepers Card Party.

The Shopkeepers of Bathing Beach will hold a card party Thursday evening, November 1, at 8:30 in Mechanic Hall. High scores will be commensured. Refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

Railroad Men Prefer Hoover

Washington, Oct. 26 (P).—Herbert Hoover was told today by Frederick H. Eljodal of Detroit, president of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees, and Arthur J. Lovell, of Washington, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, that he would be supported by a large majority of members of the railroad brotherhoods.

They said they based their prediction upon their knowledge of the political preference of the members of their organizations and also upon a belief that railroad men preferred Hoover to the Democratic presidential nominee because of his wide experience and training both in government and business.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Oct. 26 (P).—The stock market displayed a firm undertone today in the face of a record price of 5 per cent call money and an increase of $197,000,000 in brokers' loans. Buying was again rather selective in character, but a long list of merchandising, copper, public utility and aeronautical issues registered substantial gains, several of which ran from 4 to 12 1/2 points. Worked profit taking was again rather heavy but, with few exceptions, the declines were held to from one to three points.

Call money renewed at 7 1/2, but advanced to 8 as banks called $20,000,000 in loans. Wall street found comfort, however, in the recent reassuring statements on the soundness of credit conditions by Charles E. Mitchell and other leading bankers. Except for the usual month-end flurrying up of money rates, banks were generally loath for relatively easy monetary conditions for the rest of the year.

Considerable stress was laid in connection with comment on the excellent character of a large majority of the companies' earnings now being published. This, together with the fact that no sign of any marked recession have yet developed in any of the basic industries, helped to maintain bullish enthusiasm.

A further advance of 1/4 of a cent a pound to 16 cents in the price of export copper brought fresh buying into that group. American Smelting and Kennecott each ran up more than 5 points to a new peak at 27 1/2 and 12 1/2, respectively, and General Chemical recorded an extreme gain of more than 5 points.

Oils were mixed. Maryland moved into new high ground but Sinclair and Harborside, which were in the forefront of the recent advance in that group, fell back on realizing. General Motors rallied two points on buying influenced by the publication of record-breaking third quarter earnings, but lost its gain. Chrysler also was heavy, while Jordan moved up more than 2 points to a new high on merger rumors.

Montgomery-Ward came back into the speculative spotlight with an extreme gain of 12 1/2 points. R. H. Macy, Radio, Shubert Theatres, Best and Co., National Dairy Products, Wright, Sears Roebuck and National Bellas-Hess sold 4 to 5 points higher. International Harvester fell back 7 1/2 points, Atlas Powder 4, American Machine and Foundry 3 and Howe Sound, General Ice Cream and Century Ribbon yielded 2 points or more.

Society Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sheldon and daughter Dorothy, of New Bridge, quickly celebrated the Sheldon's 50th birthday on October 21 at the family home. A few friends and neighbors dropped in and spent an enjoyable evening and wished him many more happy birthdays.

Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKim of 11 Meadon street announce the engagement of their daughter, Rita, to Dr. Morris H. H. H. of Temple Mount.

Brown-Gray.

On Saturday, October 13, Harry Brown, of Lockport, and Miss Gray, of Kingston, were married by Rev. George R. Hatt, at the home of Dr. J. J. McKim. The bride was attended by Mrs. J. J. McKim and the groom by Mr. J. J. McKim.

Terwilliger-Collins.

Ellenville, Oct. 26. At the Dutch Reformed Church, which was decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums and ferns for the occasion, Grace Terwilliger and Benjamin Collins were married on Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter S. Hatt, who came from Amsterdam, N. Y. to officiate. The bride, who entered at 1 o'clock to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Henry Miller. The bride was dressed in ivory satin and wore a bridal veil, caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet. Mrs. Edd. Vanderlyn, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was dressed in a yellow tulle and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Elizabeth Mulholland, of Hartford, Conn., the maid of honor, also wore yellow tulle and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Her gown was trimmed with green. The two bridesmaids, Miss Mildred White and Miss Helen Cuddy were dressed in yellow tulle and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. All of the bride's attendants wore hats and shoes to match their gowns. Little Betty McGrath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McGrath, was the flower girl. She was dressed in a yellow tulle colonial gown, with a tiny poke bonnet to match, and carried a basket of rose petals which she strewed in the pathway of the bride. John Sanderson, brother of the bride, was best man, and Ward Wilkoff, Garret Divine and Edd. Vanderlyn acted as ushers. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the Wayside Inn for relatives and immediate friends of the couple. Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Terwilliger left on a motor trip. On their return they will make their home in Woodridge, where Mr. Terwilliger is cashier of the Woodridge Bank, and where a newly furnished home awaits them. Both Mr. and Mrs. Terwilliger are graduates of Ellenville high school. The bride is also a graduate of Beechwood Boarding School and has taught at Midvale and Fort Lee, N. J.

THE JOINERS.

At the regular meeting of Charles DeWitt Council, No. 91, J. O. U. A. M., tonight, there will be nomination and election of officers. All members are requested to attend.

There will be a meeting of Ladies' Nest, No. 1146, Order of Owls, Monday evening, October 29, at the home of the president, 50 Janet street, to make arrangements to attend the big celebration of the Order of Owls next month. All members of the nest are asked to be present.

Local Death Record

Daniel Irwin died October 25 at Kerkhousen, aged 75 years. He was born at Napanoch. He is survived by his wife and one son, Derrick M. Irwin.

Eleanor Katherine, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. W. died at Napanoch on Wednesday. Her funeral services were held from the residence of Mrs. William W. W. at Napanoch, on Wednesday afternoon with interment in Elm Mount Cemetery.

Mrs. Alfred Hopper, 77, died at the home of her son, Fred, in Napanoch, on Wednesday. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Harry Schumacher of Harmon, two sons, Thomas of Highland and Fred of Napanoch, and several grandchildren. Funeral services were held today with interment in Highland Cemetery.

Mrs. Belle D. Enderly died at the home of her brother, George Davis, in Kerkhousen on October 20, aged 54 years. She is survived by two brothers, George, with whom she made her home, and R. B. Davis of South Fallsburg; five sisters, Mrs. U. G. Upright of Wallkill, Emma Davis of Rye, Miss Nettie Wilkinson of New York city, Mrs. Albert Patterson of Ottawa, Ill., and Mrs. Anna Griffin of Carr, Colo.

Charles E. Bennett died October 24 at Ellenville where he had resided for the past four months. Previously to that he was a resident of Napanoch for forty years. He was 69 years old. He is survived by his wife and seven children, Henry and Stephen of Ellenville, Viola Terwilliger of Ellenville, George of Palmer, Mass., Eleanor Brown of Napanoch, N. J., Ora Ellsworth of Napanoch, N. J., and two brothers and a sister, Eleanor Canfield, William Bennett of Napanoch and Stephen of Uster Heights. Funeral services Saturday afternoon from the Uster Heights M. E. Church.

The funeral of Lewis Frank Bennett, a former resident of the town of Denning, will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. J. McKim, at Ellenville.

Death of his daughter, Mrs. William George, at Liberty, with interment at Caryville. Mr. Bennett for years was a prominent resident of the town of Denning and for a number of years a Republican leader of that town. He served several terms in the board of supervisors, first going to the board in 1887-88. He was again elected in 1897-98 and 1902-03. After leaving Uster county he engaged in the mercantile business at Jeffersonville, Sullivan county, and continued that business very successfully. Surviving in his wife, one daughter and three sons.

Frank J. Corsiglia, prominent glass merchant and mirror refinisher of this city, died at his home, 61 Linderman avenue, Tuesday, October 23, after a protracted illness. Mr. Corsiglia for a number of years conducted a successful business under the name of Frank J. Corsiglia & Son and had a large number of friends in this vicinity, made through his fidelity and ability in his line as an expert workman. He came to Kingston during the World War to superintend the glass furnishing and plating department of the Herbert Company, and after that concern ceased its business Mr. Corsiglia took over their interests. He is survived by his wife and four children, Joseph F., William F., Pauline and Mrs. Thomas Murray, all of this city. Funeral from his late residence, 61 Linderman avenue, on Saturday at 9 o'clock and at St. Joseph's Church at 9:30 with a requiem Mass for the repose of his soul. Interment in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery.

31 Killed in Train Crash

Bucharest, Rumania, Oct. 26 (AP).—Thirty-one persons were killed today in a collision between the Simplon Tunnel Express outbound from Bucharest and another express train from Gaid at the little station of Reva, near Slatina. Twenty-five persons were taken to hospitals. The number of injured was stated to be 47.

The accident was due to failure of the switch points to work properly. The through Paris coach of the Simplon Express, which is one of the best known trains in Europe, was completely wrecked.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Reception was good Thursday night from local stations, with the west generally weak.

The rebroadcast this morning by WGY from Australia was a success. There was the usual noise accompanying rebroadcasting a distant station, but the conversation could be understood, with the exception of most of the talking by Mrs. MacDonald, in Australia, which sounded like the quacking of a duck in a thunder storm.
